FROM AMERICAN BOARD OF AUDIOLOGY

RESTON, VA. (June 25, 2014) The American Board of Audiology (ABA) is pleased to announce that Maegan Laughlin, AuD, of Amarillo, TX, is now Board Certified in Audiology®. This certification demonstrates a commitment to professional excellence in audiology by Dr. Laughlin.

The ABA identifies and formally recognizes those audiologists whose knowledge base is consistent with the highest professionally established credentials and distinguishes them as Board Certified in Audiology. By entering into this voluntary certification program, Dr. Laughlin demonstrates her commitment to achieving and maintaining high professional standards and to remaining current in the latest audiology developments and issues. The Board Certified in Audiology credential assists the consumer in recognizing those individuals who have completed standardized education and training and who continue their professional development.

The Board Certification in Audiology program is administered by the ABA for the express purpose of certifying audiologists. Mindy K. Brudereck, AuD, Chair of the Board of Governors for the ABA, notes, "Today's audiologists are so busy that it would be easy to become complacent in relation to professional certifications," Dr. Brudereck said. "I commend and congratulate Dr. Megan Laughlin for her taking this extra step in demonstrating professional excellence."

The ABA has been granting certification to audiologists since 1999. Board Certification in Audiology is a voluntary certification program administered by audiologists for audiologists through the ABA. Benefits accrue to both the audiologist and the consumer through recognition of the commitment to continued education in the field of audiology.
